§4-332.

- (a) Subject to subsections (b) through (e) of this section, a custodian shall deny inspection of the part of a public record that contains information about the application and commission of a person as a notary public.
- (b) A custodian shall allow inspection of the part of a public record that gives:
 - (1) the name of the notary public;
 - (2) the home address of the notary public;
 - (3) the home and business telephone numbers of the notary public;
 - (4) the issue and expiration dates of the notary public's commission;
 - (5) the date the person took the oath of office as a notary public; or
 - (6) the signature of the notary public.
- (c) A custodian may allow inspection of other information about a notary public if the custodian finds a compelling public purpose.
- (d) A custodian may deny inspection of a record by a notary public or any other person in interest only to the extent that the inspection could:
 - (1) interfere with a valid and proper law enforcement proceeding;
- (2) deprive another person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication;
 - (3) constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
 - (4) disclose the identity of a confidential source;
 - (5) disclose an investigative technique or procedure;
 - (6) prejudice an investigation; or

- (7) endanger the life or physical safety of an individual.
- (e) A custodian who sells lists of notaries public shall omit from the lists the name of any notary public, on written request of the notary public.
